PHYTOMER

L'OCÉAN. LA SCIENCE. LA BEAUTÉ.

In 1972, PHYTOMER invented marine cosmetics: a new form of skin care that offers the best of the sea to your beauty regime.

Innovative, relaxing and extremely active, PHYTOMER face and body care represents an invitation to well-being, a marine immersion for healthy, natural, and lasting beauty.

A team of over 20 scientists, experts in skin biology, work to discover new marine ingredients in order to develop sensory-stimulating and highly effective products. The research and production methods ensure irreproachable quality and optimal tolerance, with the constant aim to protect the marine environment.

PHYTOMER draws the most precious ingredients from the sea

OLIGOMER®, THE SIGNATURE INGREDIENT

OLIGOMER® is a partially sodium-reduced seawater concentrate, an exclusive manufacturing secret PHYTOMER has held for 40 years.

OLIGOMER® contains all of the remineralizing properties of seawater, notably 104 trace elements necessary for the balance and vitality of the body.

Present in most PHYTOMER face and body care products, OLIGOMER® transmits the remineralizing properties of seawater to the skin in order to strengthen and recharge it with energy.

PHYTOMER observes and draws inspiration from the marine world

MARINE BIOMIMICRY, THE SCIENTIFIC APPROACH

PHYTOMER scientists study the complex defense systems developed by algae and marine plants to survive in hostile environments (waves, UV rays, pollution, etc.). They create the most well-crafted ingredients and utilize them in the advanced formulas to reproduce these natural, protective processes within the skin.

PHYTOMER respects marine resources and controls their use

MARINE BIODIVERSITY, A SUSTAINABLE COMMITMENT

PHYTOMER is a pioneer of in-house algae farming for cosmetic applications with a cultivation program in a marine area spanning 70 hectares (172 acres) in a protected zone. This program notably includes the cultivation of threatened species that can later be reintroduced to the natural environment. The filtering gardens are another concrete example of PHYTOMER's environmental commitment. This 100% natural and ingenious ecological system makes it possible to treat the water used to manufacture products exclusively with local depolluting plants, without the use of chemical solvents.
