Black Coffee Turns it Up at The Ridge Casino

Mpumalanga house heads, make some noise! BET award-winning DJ, Black Coffee, is making his return to The Ridge Casino on Saturday, 10 December 2016 – just in time to kick-start the festive season.

When you think ‘house music legends’, you think ‘Black Coffee’. Not only is he a household name, both locally and internationally, but he is also the first South African to receive the BET award for Best International African Act.

No stranger to performing in front of massive crowds, this year alone, Black Coffee performed at Coachella Music and Arts Festival, Ultra-Music Festival (Miami) and also graced Europe with a tour.

“We are truly honoured to once again host the legendary and highly acclaimed DJ Black Coffee at our venue. He is one of the most talented and respected musicians in the country, and he’s showing no signs of slowing down. We always strive to give our guests top-notch, unrivalled entertainment, and on the 10th of December, fans are in for yet another memorable music experience,” says Sharika Betts, The Ridge Casino’s Marketing Manager.

House lovers can look forward to Black Coffee spinning some of his fan-favourite songs and new material from his latest, platinum selling album, Pieces of Me, including his latest remix of Alicia Keys’ hit “In Common”, which is currently dominating South Africa’s radio charts and dance floors.

Tickets for Black Coffee’s show cost R200 per person and are available through Computicket. The Ridge Rewards cardholders are eligible for an up to 15% discount on show tickets. Doors to the venue will open at 6pm, with the show starting at 7pm.

Purchase your tickets now before they are sold out, and prepare to get your party on!
