

Press Release – Silverstar – 25/09/2018

Harry & the Gupta live at Silverstar

Silverstar is the home of comedy on the West Rand and if you are in the mood for a good laugh, you will appreciate the comedic brilliance of "Harry & the Gupta". This funny bone-tickling show is coming to Silverstar, for one night only, on Friday, 12 October.

The show stars two giants of the entertainment industry who are being seen on stage for the first time together. Vikash Mathura ("Harry") is a radio and theatre legend and the co-creator of the famous Peru and Bala duo. Jack Devnarain ("the Gupta") was lauded for his acting on Isidingo and can now be seen on eTV's daily soapie, Imbewu.

Set in the mythical "Saxonwold Shebeen", the story begins when Harry (known as Durban's con of cons) meets the Gupta (Joburg's 'don of dons') for the first time. Their chance encounter results in a series of comic misunderstandings that inevitably creates an unlikely bond between the two formidable, albeit shady, characters.

Enjoy a much-needed evening of proudly South African comedy that's sure to produce many belly laughs! Tickets are available from Computicket at R150 per person for VIP, and just R120 for general admission.
