New Album Tour Brings The Soil to The Ridge Casino's Stage

The Ridge Casino is anticipating a sell-out show as multi-award winning acappella group, The Soil, get ready to perform at the casino's upmarket entertainment venue, The Arena, on Friday the 4th of November 2016. The internationally-acclaimed group is returning to eMalahleni on a tour to launch their new album, Echoes of Kofifi, and enchant local fans with their new harmonies.

"The Soil has graced some of the biggest global stages, including the USA's Apollo Theatre in Manhattan and the Edinburgh International Festival in Scotland. We are delighted to bring the world-class group to eMalahleni and treat our guests to a night filled with amazing live acappella, and Afro-Soul sounds", says Sharika Betts, Marketing Manager at The Ridge Casino.

The Soil first grabbed the attention of music lovers when they released their self-titled debut album in 2011, which has since gone platinum. Their second album, The Soil Nostalgic Moments, was also a huge success and included the much-loved hit, Susan. They have also been nominated for BET Awards and have won the SAMA award for best R&B/Soul/Reggae album.

The group comprises of 3 members, Buhlebendalo "Soil Sister" Mda, Ntsika "Fana-tastic" Ngxanga, and Luphindo "Master P" Ngxanga. The trio's performance at The Ridge will include new as well as old music, and will feature some special on-stage guests.

Tickets are available at only R180 per person through Computicket. The Ridge Rewards cardholders are eligible for up to 15% discount on show tickets. The show starts at 7pm.

eMalahleni can also look forward to a show with music legend Black Coffee, taking place on 10 December at The Ridge Casino.
