RADIO BOYS GET A NIGHT OUT AT GOLD REEF CITY

A spirited and slightly rowdy group of radio deejays were treated to a Boys Night Out at Gold Reef City (<https://www.tsogosun.com/gold-reef-city-casino>), where their competitive spirit was unleashed in true Bro Code fashion.

First up the men were separated from the boys with a choice of thrilling rides at the Gold Reef City Theme Park (<https://www.tsogosun.com/gold-reef-city-casino/theme-park>). Not surprisingly, most of the men chose the Fear Factor 10 'Tower of Terror' and revealed that men can scream like girls when the occasion calls for it.

Then it was on to the Gold Reef City entertainment complex, where the boys got down to some testosterone-infused bowling action before spinning the wheel of fortune in an exclusive knockout Roulette tournament. Man-sized meals in Back 'O The Moon (<https://www.tsogosun.com/back-o-the-moon>) satisfied even the most insatiable hunger as the deejays kicked back and relaxed after their action-packed Gold Reef City adventure. Late night gaming followed in the casino until the now-weary boys retired to Gold Reef City Theme Park Hotel (<https://www.tsogosun.com/gold-reef-city-theme-park-hotel>) for a good night's rest.

The evening ended off with a Roulette challenge, the winners walking away with cash prizes donated to a Tsogo Sun endorsed charity of their choice. Read Educational Trust was chosen by winner Khetha Mkhize from 94.7 to receive R10 000, while second and third place winners Vic Naidoo from 5FM and DJ T Deep from Metro FM chose Känguru and Boikanyo as their respective beneficiaries of R5,000 each.
