

Press Release – Silverstar – 27/06/2016

Silverstar Brings you the Best in Entertainment this July

- The Terracotta Army and the First Emperor of China: The Exhibition – 15 June to 20 August 2016

The incredible staging of the Terracotta Army, the necropolis and life of the First Emperor of China, has finally arrived at The Globe at Silverstar. This extraordinary voyage takes you through the Ancient China of 2,200 years ago and uncovers the mystery and secrets of that time. The more than 300 life-size reproductions of statues, chariots, weapons and objects from the daily life of the First Emperor of China, as discovered in the more than 100 pits of the necropolis, completes this exhibition and gives it a life of its own.

Tickets for this event are available through www.silverstarcasino.co.za.

- The Power of Poison – 24 June to 24 August 2016

Join Silverstar and the American Museum of Natural History as they bring you The Power of Poison, The Exhibition. Discover all you need to know about the enchanting history of poison - from the cures it has produced to the myths it has created. All of this can now be discovered in over 200 exhibits, including incredible presentations, demonstrations and performances. This event, offering fun for the entire family, is taking place at The Globe at Silverstar. Make sure to get yourself there and take a guided tour while you explore the role played by poison in shaping human history, healthcare and literature. Also discover the light-hearted side of poison as you voyage through the recreation of Snow White's fairy-tale and the witch's poisonous apple.
