

Press Release – Silverstar – 23/10/2018

Silverstar will once again become a Beach paradise this Festive Season

The West Rand's favourite entertainment destination is gearing up to become a holiday paradise right on your doorstep once again Silverstar's Beach Festival is back from Thursday, 13 December 2018 to Sunday, 6 January 2019!

For the fourth year running, The Square, situated at the heart of this Tsogo Sun property, will be transformed into a sandy amusement park from 10am to 10pm daily (closed on Christmas Day). No need to pack up half the house and drive for hours for the family to enjoy the sun and sand – and the best part is that entry to Silverstar's Beach Festival is FREE!

From beach fun for the kids to sunset cocktails for the grown-ups, sizzling food specials and live entertainment, there really is something to appeal to every single member of the family's sense of holiday fun.

The whole family can spend the day in the sun and sand surrounded by a myriad of entertainment - and entrance to the beach is absolutely free, with full access to all of the fun from the minute your feet touch the sand.

Silverstar's Beach Festival 2018 is also the perfect place to see in the New Year, so make sure you don't miss out on all the 'staycation' action - head to Silverstar this December.
