Tsogo Sun's SunBreaks promotion runs across 22 hotels in five provinces – KwaZulu-Natal, Western Cape, Eastern Cape, Mpumalanga, and Gauteng – from 16 March to 10 April when sunseekers, holidaymakers and fun-lovers will receive a 25% discount with a 'stay for four nights and pay for three' offer, and two kids under 18 stay for free when sharing with two adults.

Over the Easter long weekend, both Montecasino and Silverstar are transforming into holiday playgrounds with numerous activities daily from morning to night.

At Silverstar (<https://www.tsogosun.com/silverstar-casino>), special kids' entertainment includes jumping castles (with child minders), a maze for Easter egg and treasure hunts, and for games for kids and adults, quiz games and music, jigsaw puzzles and crosswords, face-painting, movie screenings throughout the long weekend, and lots more.

On Easter Monday, 2 April, a pop-up market from 10am to 5pm will feature stalls selling a range of fresh and quirky and totally trendy goods including wire art, home décor, jewellery, baked goods, breads, funky gadgets, cool stationery, kids and baby products, market foods, and lots more innovative items from local talent.

At Montecasino (<https://www.tsogosun.com/montecasino>), the fun continues with something for everyone, all the time. The Piazza will be transformed into a play area for children of all ages. Giant inflatables on the Piazza will have kids and adults alike jumping for the joy of it, trying the Bungee Experience, or joining the Nerf Gun War.

At the Montecasino Bird Gardens, two exciting Treasure Hunts will happen on Sunday 1 April, at 11:30am and 1:30pm, for 200 children at each event. Beacon will be there giving sweets to the kids at each treasure hunt stop, the Easter Bunny will hand out Easter eggs, and face painters will add to the day's delights.

Food will be fabulous at both Silverstar and Montecasino, with special Easter offers at many of the restaurants, roaming food vendors, and delicious cocktails and ice-cold beers for the adults.
